PRESS RELEASE

DATE: 3/20/2020

PEKIN, IL: In an effort to protect our staff and the citizens of Tazewell County during the current COVID-19 pandemic, the Tazewell County Clerk & Recorder of Deeds Office located at 11 S. Fourth Street in Downtown Pekin will be open by appointment only.

The Tazewell County Clerk & Recorder of Deeds Office will remain open to the public and all services will remain available, but by appointment only. Anyone wishing to make an appointment anytime during our current hours of Monday-Friday from 8:00am-4:30pm can call (309)477-2264.

Individuals will be asked before scheduling an appointment if they are experiencing any of the following symptoms:

- 1) Fever
- 2) Chills or Body Aches
- 3) Cough
- 4) Runny Nose
- 5) Sore Throat
- 6) Shortness of Breath
- 7) Headache, Diarrhea, or Vomiting

Individuals with these symptoms will not be allowed into the McKenzie Building but arrangements will be made to assist them in gaining access to the services they are requesting. All other individuals will be allowed into the building at the time of their appointment and escorted to the Tazewell County Clerk & Recorder of Deeds Office by a member of our staff.
